Thank you for your kind letter of 9 March. I am very glad to know that you enjoyed your tour of duty in Washington. At the time of your departure I would like to say that your service here has been greatly appreciated by our Agency and has contributed materially to the close relations which have developed between the intelligence organizations of our two countries.

I am sure that all the friends which you leave behind will join me in wishing you every success in your future activities back home.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles

Mr. Allen W. Dulles,
Director,
Central Intelligence Agency,
2430 E Street, N.W.,
WASHINGTON 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles,

Before leaving Washington I should like to express to you my very grateful thanks and my sincere appreciation for the many kindnesses I have received from yourself and the staff of your organization during my tour of duty here. It has been a great privilege to serve here and to work with members of the Agency. I am sure that my successor will have just as pleasant and profitable stay here as I have had.

2. I have no doubt that my Director is as sincerely grateful as I am for the benefit that accrues [redacted] due to the association between our two organizations.
